

YOU ARE INVITED

26TH ANNUAL PROM BOUTIQUE

MARCH 14, 2020

Nassau Community College Marketing and Fashion students and the Long Island Volunteer Center will be distributing donated dresses and accessories free of charge

Date and Time: Saturday, March 14th, 9am to 3pm

Location: Nassau County Community College, CCB Building in Garden City

Registration begins February 24th ~ For directions, visit www.ncc.edu

This event is for young ladies of families who cannot easily absorb the expense of a new gown for their prom, sweet sixteen, graduation, or another special event. The boutique is available to any young lady, grades 9-12 from across Long Island who can benefit from this program. Minor alterations will be done on-site. Last year's event reached over 5,000 young ladies.

Individuals or groups will be permitted to register and secure a time slot. This is a closed event so we cannot allow any walk-ins and no strollers are permitted.

Please contact NCC's Dale Stavin at 516-572-7588, ext 0

Monday - Thursday between the hours of 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Long Island Volunteer Center (LIVC) was created in 1993 to improve the quality of life for Long Islanders. LIVC is a nonprofit organization affiliated with the Hands on Network. It encourages people to engage in service to their communities and establishes collaborations for community outreach initiative's between businesses, academia and nonprofit organizations. Prom Boutique, a former activity of the Junior League of Long Island, was added to the array of LIVC community service projects in 1999; partnering with NCC began in 2004 providing opportunities for service learning projects.
